Jewish Community Foundation Announces New Leadership

Princeton, NJ – With the start of a new fiscal year, a new Board of Trustees is now in place at the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Mercer. The Trustees will help to raise the Foundation’s visibility as a trusted local resource on charitable giving and the investment of nonprofit reserve funds.

The Executive Committee (EC) now includes:

President.....Chip Loeb
VP Investment .....Harvey Fram
VP Development.....Joanne Snow
VP at Large.....Michael Feldstein
Treasurer.....Joyce Kalstein
Secretary.....Tiffany Willner
EC Member at Large.....Brenda Zlatin
EC Member at Large.....Wally Yosafat
Immediate Past President...Scott Schaefer

The following new members were elected to the Board of Trustees:

Ronald Berg of Newtown has been a C-Level executive with a number of early-stage technology and life sciences companies, with a focus on raising capital, founder transitions, building management teams and executing exit strategies. Ron has a strong entrepreneurial spirit, having founded, invested in, or served as an advisor for various companies. Ron has also served as a Board member of both profit and not-for-profit organizations throughout his career.

Stephanie Koren of Bridgewater recently retired from a career as a middle school Spanish teacher. Stephanie has been very involved in Temple Sholom in Bridgewater, where she has been a member for the past 13 years. She has served as co-chair of the membership committee, chair of the youth commission, co-chair of fundraising events, corresponding secretary on the executive board, and now as a founding team member of the Life and Legacy committee.
